

Exciting Changes Coming to Vino Moi!

Contributed by R. Eriks Goodwin

Due to the sustained popularity of our Vino Moi wine tasting events and due to popular request, we're making some changes to Vino Moi in the coming weeks that we think will do a great job of serving our loyal members. Please check back from time to time to see what's happening with Vino Moi! We will also be launching a new and improved web site in the next few weeks, so we've taken down our "Upcoming Tastings" list temporarily. Not to worry, we'll put them back up as soon as we find a new home!
